

Dear Clients and Colleague,

AAJ Komunika is proud to involve in your corporate life. This year, we are reaching 8 years in the community as one of public relations agencies in the nation. The secret to our success? A healthy mix of originality and tradition. We know the value of tapping into our experiences from the past, and the necessity of pushing the envelope toward the future.

As part of our 8th anniversary celebration, we want to share with you some of the progress we've made over the years and have taken the liberty of highlighting those achievements. To all our loyal clients, we offer big thanks.

Over the past years, we have taken great strides in adapting to a changing environment. We realize that tomorrow will bring new discoveries, new technology, and new demands from our public relations-conscious community. Our continuing goal is an ongoing commitment to keep step with changing public opinions and trends.

Many changes occurred in the past few years, one of the changes was the AAJ Komunika ownership which at the end has pushed us forward to improve the organization in its entirety. As a result, we would like to introduce you to our new company name, JavaPR

Our new brand embodies our vision of becoming the leading local PR consultant focused on enabling our clients to achieve their PR objectives with integrity, experience and skill. The new identity also represents externally the changes we've made internally as well to portrays our focus on the complete public relations enterprise

We value your friendship and trust and want to continue serving your recycling needs now and in the future.

Our success was possible only because of your support and confidence in us.

Sincerely,

Catharina Widiasrini
President Director
